

Raymonde Hachey

OSA Player

Raymonde Enjoys League Play

Raymonde Hachey

Raymonde started playing Shuffleboard 15 years ago . She says she found the game to be a lot of fun and enjoys the social aspect.

She is a member of Canadian Legion Branch 50 in Kitchener and when someone asked her to join the KW Shuffleboard League she thought why not!

Raymonde is originally from New Brunswick now living and working in Kitchener , Ontario.

She works for Canada Post and braves the cold winters and humid summers as a letter carrier. She is a single Mom with two grown children.

Now she is out every Wednesday night competing with her other “Branch 50 Rockers” teammates and enjoying it very much.

Raymonde has also played in the Legion Zone level tournaments and hopes to advance to the next level which is District .

She plays in most OSA Tournaments every month and loves to play in the annual Ladies Only . It’s a chance for just the girls to get out there and just have fun!

Great Times and Great Folks!

Raymonde says she loves to travel to Milton, Fonthill, Kingston and Port Colborne, Ontario to play.

She competes every year in the OSA Playdowns and says he enjoys that level of competition.

“When it comes to good times, good food and great people , that’s what you can expect to find on the Shuffleboard circuit!”

Quote:

“Shuffleboard is a great game, a great way to meet new people and make new friends. Your never too old to start playing! ”

With that in mind there should be no doubt we’ll be seeing a lot of Raymonde.